

UGS Q1 Revenue Up 8%

UGS, a global provider of product lifecycle management (PLM) software and services, has reported an 8% growth in revenue to $273.8 mn during the first quarter. Software revenue increased to $205.2 mn (including license and maintenance revenues), or an 11% growth as compared to the first quarter 2005. On a constant currency basis, the company saw an increase of 15%. EBITDA was $48.1 mn. The firm's operating loss was $5.5 mn and includes the impact of acquisition-related intangible amortization costs of $39.3 mn.

For detailed news, please visit www.voicendata.com